GCKA Football Coach Code of Ethics and Conduct

In an effort to promote good sportsmanship, the Grove City Kid's Association Football Commissioner and Advisory Board has pledged to enforce a Code of Ethics and Conduct that will ensure the physical, mental and emotional wellbeing of all of its participants and coaches. Our goal is to ensure that all of our participants and coaches will thrive in an environment where respect and camaraderie abound.

Grove City Kid's Association Football organization recognizes the physical and competitive nature of the sport and as such we recognize the need for control of all participants as well as coaches. Therefore, all coaches are responsible to read and sign the Code of Ethics and Conduct and ensure that they adhere to it. Any coach who is deemed in violation of this code will be referred to the GCKA Football Advisory Board for a resolution.

Ethics Introduction:

All GCKA football coaches must realize the game is played for the benefit of the participants. An emphasis will be placed on developing lifelong values.

Coaches are role models and will set positive examples for the organization, the players, the officials, the parents, and the spectators.

The Code of Ethics has been developed to stress proper behavior that brings credit to the team and organization.

Article One – Responsibilities to Players

The primary function of the coach is to educate players through participation in the game of football. A coach must be aware of the influence they have on the players and at time the spectators. All actions are expected set the examples of proper sportsmanship and will show respect for their players and the opposition at all times.

All coaches are to ensure a safe environment of participation for their players, and will review and practice the basic first aid principles needed to treat injuries of players. All coaching techniques and decisions will be with the player's best interest and safety in mind. Practice and drills should be conducted safely and for the benefit of the team.

Coaches will set a good example at all times and stress that players are expected to follow their parents and school policies. Players will be reminded that academic success is more important than on the field success.

A coach will organize practices that are fun and challenging for all players, and ensure that all league rules are followed during games. A Coach will provide a sports environment that is free of profanity, drugs, smoking, and alcohol.

Article Two - Responsibility to the Organization

All coaches are expected abide by all league policies and rules uniformly, to show respect to the participants, the spectators, the Officials, the Commissioner and the Advisory Board at all times. A coach is a volunteer and is expected to conduct them self in a manner that brings credit themselves and to the organization and to handle all grievances and complaints in a professional manner. The coach must be sensitive to the fact that he is responsible for promoting a positive image for the program. The coach will continuously promote sportsmanship and respect for the opponent, the officials and the fans. The coach is responsible for the behavior of their staff, their players, and their sidelines at all times, including practices and other organized events.

Coaches must be willing to provide time to assist with, but not limited to the following:

1. Staffing Fund-raising activities
2. Sponsorship
3. Field Maintenance
4. Equipment Maintenance
5. Equipment Inventory
6. Assisting the Advisory Board and the Commissioner as needed

Article Three - Rules of the Game

Every coach has a responsibility to know and teach the rules of the game and to teach them to their players. Through proper techniques, coaches will teach their team proper blocking, tackling, alignment, and other fundamentals of the game through maintaining high ethical standards in practice and games.

Article Four - Officials

Officials should be treated in a courteous manner at all times.

Coaches and officials are required to attend Rules Interpretation Meetings and stay informed on rule changes. Players should be made aware how rules are interpreted. Officials will have the respect and support of the coaches and players, comments during and after the game must focus on the players, not the officiating.

Any complaints about officiating should be documented and directed to the proper resource on the Football Advisory Board.

Article Five – Parent/Public Relations

Coaches will act as the first line of communications with parents and other supports of their team and or the organization.

Communications

1. Use courtesy, honesty, and respect in all dealings.
2. Coaches should instruct their players as to what proper conduct is.

3. Professional, school, and family matters must be kept private.
4. Comments about upcoming games should be limited to promoting the contest.
5. Treat others as you would expect to be treated.

Coaches should help to improve inter-sports relationships by working with the coaches and advisors to the cheerleaders.

Any complaints about parents or spectators should be documented and directed to the proper resource on the Football Advisory Board.

Article Six – Equipment Responsibilities

As a coach you will ensure that every player is properly outfitted in order to safely participate in the game of football, at no time should a participant's safety be compromised with unsafe equipment. Players should be taught to respect their equipment all times. As a coach you should not condone any activity that leads to the damage or destruction of GCKA equipment.

Coaches have to responsibility to maintain an accurate roster and list of equipment issued to their players. Coaches have the task to collect equipment from players at the following times:

1. If a player decides to leave the team prior to the end of the season.
2. At the end of the season, after the last game.

All equipment should be returned in the same manner it was issued, clean and in good order. Damaged equipment should be noted in the roster and turned over to the designated equipment manager and the Advisory Board will provide direction.

The following Code of Conduct rules are set forth by the GCKA Football and will be enforced:

1. Set an example of good sportsmanship as well as have a positive attitude and show enthusiasm for all participants.
2. Strive to make every practice serve as a training ground for life and a basis for good mental and physical health.
3. Emphasize that winning is the result of "team work".
4. Emphasize that athletes strive to be good students and that both are physically and mentally challenging.
5. Remember that each participant has responsibilities to his/her family, education and religion that come before his/her team.
6. Remove from a game, practice or competition any participant when even slightly in doubt about their health.
7. Do not criticize participants in front of spectators. Reserve constructive criticism for private or in the presence of team participants if others might benefit.
8. Do not criticize an opposing team, its participants, coaches or fans by word of mouth or gestures.

9. Do not deliberately incite unsportsmanlike conduct.
10. Together with game officials be jointly responsible for the conduct and control of the team, fans and spectators.
11. Accept decisions of the game or conference officials on the field and at competitions as being fair and called to the best of said officials.
12. Do not permit an ineligible participant to participate in a game or competition.
13. Refrain from using abusive and profane language.
14. Refrain from striking any other Coach, Board Member, Official, spectator or participant in the GCKA.
15. Do not receive any payment in cash of any kind for any services provided as a Coach.
16. Abstain from drinking alcohol on game and practice fields. Abstain from drinking at any coaching function while players are present.
17. Coaches are to set a good example for the participants. They will display a high standard of behavior both on and off the field.
18. Coaches will respect the rights, dignity and worth of each other and every person involved in our organization.
19. No favoritism will be tolerated. Every participant is to be treated equally and fairly.
20. The personal feelings of coaches should never interfere with the coaching of any participant.
21. Fair and consistent coaching should be expected at all times from each coach.
22. Differences between coaches are to be settled after practices/games and away from participants and parents.
23. Arguing with other coaches in front of players/parents will not be tolerated.
24. Disrespect and verbal abuse will not be tolerated, including trash talking, arguing, use of foul language, ethnic slurs or references, towards any player, parent, official, other coach, team representative, any opposing city or spectator.
25. Parent/participant issues that cannot be resolved in a reasonable manner should be referred to the Football Advisory Board. The GCKA Executive Board will only be contacted if an issue cannot be resolved by the GCKA Football Advisory Board.
26. Coaches should be approachable by parents. Your parents need to be able to feel they can talk with you. This should be done either, before or after practice or a game, not during practice, a game, or in front of the players.

GCKA Football Volunteer Coach Application Form

I hereby agree to adhere to the GCKA Football Coaches Code of Ethics and Conduct and fully understand if I do not uphold them, I will be held accountable for my behavior. Any violations will result in immediate action by the Advisory Board and Football Commissioner.
